

Feedback and complaints

We're here to help, and we value what you have to say about the quality of our service. If we've exceeded your expectations or we haven't met them, we hope to hear from you straight away.

Providing feedback will not affect your relationship with us or the services we pay for. Sharing your experience can help us fix problems and improve services.

Let's talk about it

If you're unhappy about something or wish to make a complaint, talk to your CTP Care contact or any other person you've been talking to at icare. They may be able to sort out your concerns immediately.

If you'd prefer to speak to someone else, you can also phone, post or email us using the details below:

Phone: 1300 738 586
Email: feedback.ctpcare@icare.nsw.gov.au

What help can I get to make a complaint?

Your family member, friend or representative can talk to us on your behalf.

You can also make a complaint in your preferred language. Let us know if you'd like to use an interpreter to speak to us or if you'd like any documents translated. You can also call Associated Translators and Linguists on (02) 9231 3288.

When will you respond to my complaint?

We aim to get back to you within five business days of receiving your complaint. We'll provide you with the outcome within 20 business days from when we first received your complaint.

You can also give anonymous feedback; however, we won't be able to tell you the outcome of any action we have taken.

What is the difference between a complaint and a dispute?

Anyone can make a complaint. Complaints can be about:

- any aspect of CTP Care
- the level of service provided to you
- the services we pay for.

A dispute is when someone disagrees with a decision we've made about your treatment and care needs.

We resolve disputes differently from complaints. For more details, request a copy of our Internal review process information sheet from your CTP Care contact.

Who should I contact if my complaint is not resolved?

The Scheme Integration & Resolution Team can review your complaint if you're unhappy with the response you receive. You can ask your CTP Care contact to refer you to the Scheme Integration & Resolution Team and/or have your complaint considered by a senior representative. Call our switchboard on 1300 738 586 or email feedback.ctpcare@icare.nsw.gov.au.

If you feel the Scheme Integration & Resolution Team hasn't sufficiently or fairly dealt with your complaint, you can take your complaint to the Independent Review Office (IRO) or the NSW Ombudsman. The IRO is an independent government agency that deals with complaints from injured persons about their motor accident insurer. If at any stage you're not happy with the management of your injury, you can contact the IRO directly by:
